Unsubsidized Direct Loan Request 2006-2007

Unsubsidized Direct Loans are available regardless of need; however, interest will accrue on the loan while the student is in school. Dependent students can borrow unsubsidized loan up to the amount approved for their grade level. If parents are denied a Direct PLUS Loan for their dependent undergraduate student because of an adverse credit history, the student may be eligible to borrow additional Unsubsidized Direct Loan.

Independent students can borrow Unsubsidized Direct Loan, if necessary, to meet their student loan contribution. You are considered independent if you can answer "Yes" to any of the following statements:

- You were born before January 1, 1983.
- You are a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces.
- You will be enrolled in a graduate or professional program (beyond a bachelor's degree) in 2006-2007.
- You are married.
- You are an orphan or ward of the court, or you were a ward of the court until age 18.
- You have children (or dependents other than a spouse) who live with you and receive more than half their support from you (through June 30, 2007).
