ALLOWABLE EXPENSE CATEGORIES

Receipts must be submitted for all documented expenses.

Examples of Additional Expenses NOT Included are:

- Cable
- · Credit card debt
- Car payments
- Trips for entertainment purposes

HOUSING (Room & Board)

Housing costs that exceed the basic student budget for reasonable, justified living accommodations are acceptable. However, you are expected to seek housing within the budgeted housing allowance. If you have roommates, your costs will be divided by the number of roommates.

Acceptable additions to this category include:

- Excess rent: a copy of your lease agreement
- Homeowner's or renter's insurance premiums: proof of payment, copy of policy
- Proof of payment: receipts, billing statements for three months for:
 - Basic PG&E/SMUD
 - Basic telephone costs
 - · Basic Internet costs

MEDICAL, DENTAL AND OPTICAL ALLOWANCES

A medical, dental and optical allowance for expenses not covered by insurance is included in the "Personal Expenses" category of the basic budget. Appropriate documentation for additional projected expenses or expenses that occur during the academic year include:

- Health care provider's billing statements showing cost, date of treatment, and amount paid
- Copy of insurance policy (for student's premium cost)
- Proof of payment by student or parent

Projected expenses that occur during the academic year will be considered when you present a signed health care provider's statement, written on letterhead, indicating:

- Treatment required
- Cost
- Scheduled date of treatment

REQUIRED EDUCATIONAL COSTS

In addition to the basic "Books and Supplies" category of the student expense budget, acceptable additions include:

- Required reference texts
- Required special equipment/supplies
- · Required research costs

TRANSPORTATION

The basic student expense budget covers moderate cost of public transportation for incidental travel to and from your parents' or your home, and an annual bicycle license. Transportation costs must be educationally related. Acceptable additional expenses may include:

- Transportation costs required by an academic program, unusual medical condition or other reasons directly related to educational needs (supporting statements from an academic advisor may be requested).
- Costs of commuting to UC Davis from surrounding communities or visiting family and/or commuting to work/internship from surrounding communities. Be sure to include:
 - Estimated mileage per trip (indicate whether one-way or round trip)
 - List starting and ending addresses
 - Number of trips and total mileage
- Cost of car insurance for student that exceeds current budget allotment.
- Quarter(s) you will incur extra travel expenses.
- Receipts for travel expenses.

LIFE INSURANCE

Life insurance premiums are allowed for the student and/ or dependent children of the student. Proof of life insurance premiums in the student's name is required.

ALTERNATIVE BUDGET REQUEST

Students who are married, or have dependent children age 18 and under are eligible for an increased budget to cover additional family expenses. Complete an Alternative Budget Request form, which is available on our website at: financialaid.ucdavis.edu/faforms.
